GREEN GAMEBULL
REVOLUTION

(David | Dallas, TX)

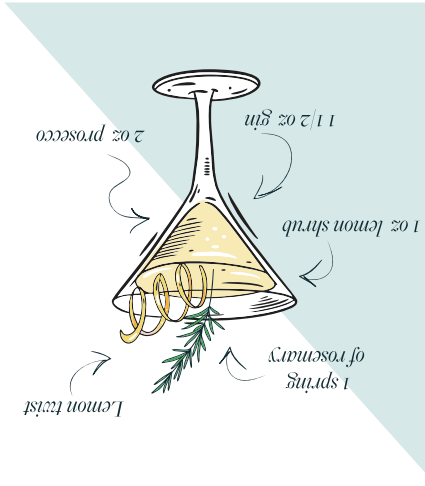

Muddle the mango puree and cardamom at the bottom of a highball glass. Add ice, then pour in the sparkling water and stir. Garnish with thyme and serve.

Pour an unspecified amount of the habanero whiskey (spicy and a little crazy), muddled with sage (aka hedge), add a splash of Mexican Coke (populism) and a squeeze of lime to "make it all get along."

Muddle rosemary leaves with bitters in a rocks glass, then add liqueur and bourbon. Fill with ice, stir for 20 seconds then pour kombucha over. Give it one more stir, garnish with rosemary and serve.

Add midori and vodka to a glass full of ice and stir. Add Red Bull to taste and stir again. Garnish with Pop Rocks, or, if you want to try Kimberly's twist gummy bears (she couldn't find Pop Rocks at her local grocery store).

Add gin and shrub (get it? like hedge funds?) to a cocktail shaker with some ice and shake, then strain into a glass. Pour prosecco on top, garnish with rosemary and a lemon twist and serve.

STONKTAIL 75
(Elizabeth | Buffalo, NY)

Fill a rocks glass with a handful of ice cubes, or one of those oversized ones if you're feeling fancy. Pour the bourbon over. Don't overthink it.

KAIS
FAVORITE COCKTAIL

2 oz bourbon (Kai prefers Knob Creek — Molly digs Booker's and Kimberly likes Uncle Nearest)
